

GREENER PASTURES

5.

Inspired by a word spoken
 through an awesome woman, Anna Stewart.
 In God the grass IS actually greener on the other side.
 Quite a biblical concept. God will always take us to new and greener pastures.

Words - Liz Buchanan
 Music - Liz Buchanan
 & James Garrahy
 ©1998 Emmanuel Worship

Intro

Fm C7 Fm C7

Verse 1

Fm C7 Fm

One da - y I heard the Lord sa - y "I wan - na take you to places that you've ne - ver been." I sai - d, "Oh Lord, How ex ci - ting!

C7 C#7 C7 Fm C7

Fm C7 C#7 C7

I wan - na go with You so lea - d..."

Chorus

Fm C7 C#7 C7 Fm

Take me Lord to new and green - er past - ures I hear You say "Now

C7 E^b E Fm C7 To Coda

come and be re - newed" With You Lord the grass is al ways green er

Fm C7 E^b E DS al coda C7 E^b E

when I jour - ney deep er in - to... deep - er in to

Fm C7 Fm C7

You. oo - h!

Verse 2

Fm C7 Fm

I know that following Your foot steps is oft-ten pain ful and You

C7 C#7 C7+ Fm C7

ask so much of me. And ye t You give in re- turn Your heart, Your love, You set me free!

Fm C7 C#7 C7

Coda

Fm C7 Eb E

when I jour - ney deep er,

Fm C7 Eb E Fm

when I jour - ney deep - er, When I jour - ney

C7 Eb E Fm C7

deep er in - to You. Ooh!

Fm C7

Outro

(rhythm section out) Fm C7 (X4)

Take me Lord ooh -

(rhythm section in) Fm C7 Eb sus E (X4) Fm

- Take me Lord (I wan - na go with you!)