

COME TO ME, ALL YE WHO LABOUR

COME TO ME
87. 87 DTraditional Irish Melody
arr. by J. de L.

B Cm

1. "Come to me, all ye who la-bour, come, and I will give you rest":
 2. Here up - on this al - tar low - ly is the food you make your home,
 3. All is joy when thou art near us; earth can nev - er bliss im - part

Cm AS ES GS

1. such, dear Lord, thine in - vi - ta - tion to each soul to be thy guest;
 2. while we hail thee Lord and Mas - ter, reign - ing from thy heaven - ly throne;
 3. like the peace and heaven - ly sweet - ness of thy vis - it to each heart;

E AS ES GS

1. and we an - swer with deep long - ing, while our sin - ful - ness we see,
 2. life with - out thee would be lone - ly, so our hearts still cry to thee:
 3. all un - felt are grief and sor - row, as with trust we cry to thee:

Cm AS GS

Refrain

Je - sus, Lord, I am not wor - thy, yet in pi - ty come to me.